THE SATURDAY CLUB PRESENTS THE HISTORY AND DO'S AND TABOOS OF TABLE MANNERS AND TABLE ETIQUETTE CLASS

WAYNE, PA – March 18, 2011 – On Tuesday, April 5, 2011 from 6:30 to 8:30 pm, The Saturday Club will present The History and Do's and Taboos of Table Manners and Table Etiquette, a dining etiquette class for 4th, 5th, 6th grade children accompanied by a seated three-course dinner provided by Perfect Setting Catering of Berwyn, PA. Renowned Cotillion instructor Jon D. Williams will teach the class.

Today, as well as in the past, dining is almost universally associated with sense and civility. Eating is not only a necessity; it is also a ritual of sharing our well-being and extending respect and courtesy toward others. With family, friends, and business associates, dining etiquette demonstrates our social skills, our hospitality and – most importantly – our education.

This class will instruct students on the rules and taboos of dining etiquette and table manners. The evening will cover the essential information one needs to know, which is relevant to today's culture. The goal is to make the students feel more comfortable and confident in any dining situation.

Course highlights include: Why is it so important?; Table Etiquette/Table Manners – Is there a Difference?; What, Where, When, and How – Rules of the Table; What's all this Stuff?; Silverware Savvy; Home, Guest, and Restaurant; and Table Do's and Taboos.

Membership is $75 per child. The event will be held at the Saturday Club, 117 West Wayne Avenue in Wayne. Registration is limited and is available on a first-come, first-served basis at <http://www.saturdayclub.org>.
